

16 million years ago (mya)

Legend:

- Land (Green)
- Lagoon (Light Blue)
- Lake (Yellow)
- Sea (Dark Blue)
- Volcanoes (Red Asterisk)
- Subduction zone (Black Arrow)

13,6 million years ago (mya)

11,6 million years ago (mya)

Wherever you see a footprint, pick up the corresponding card

- Yellow footprint = Science Card
- Pink footprint = Art Card

Wherever you see a spiral, look for the image in the glossary

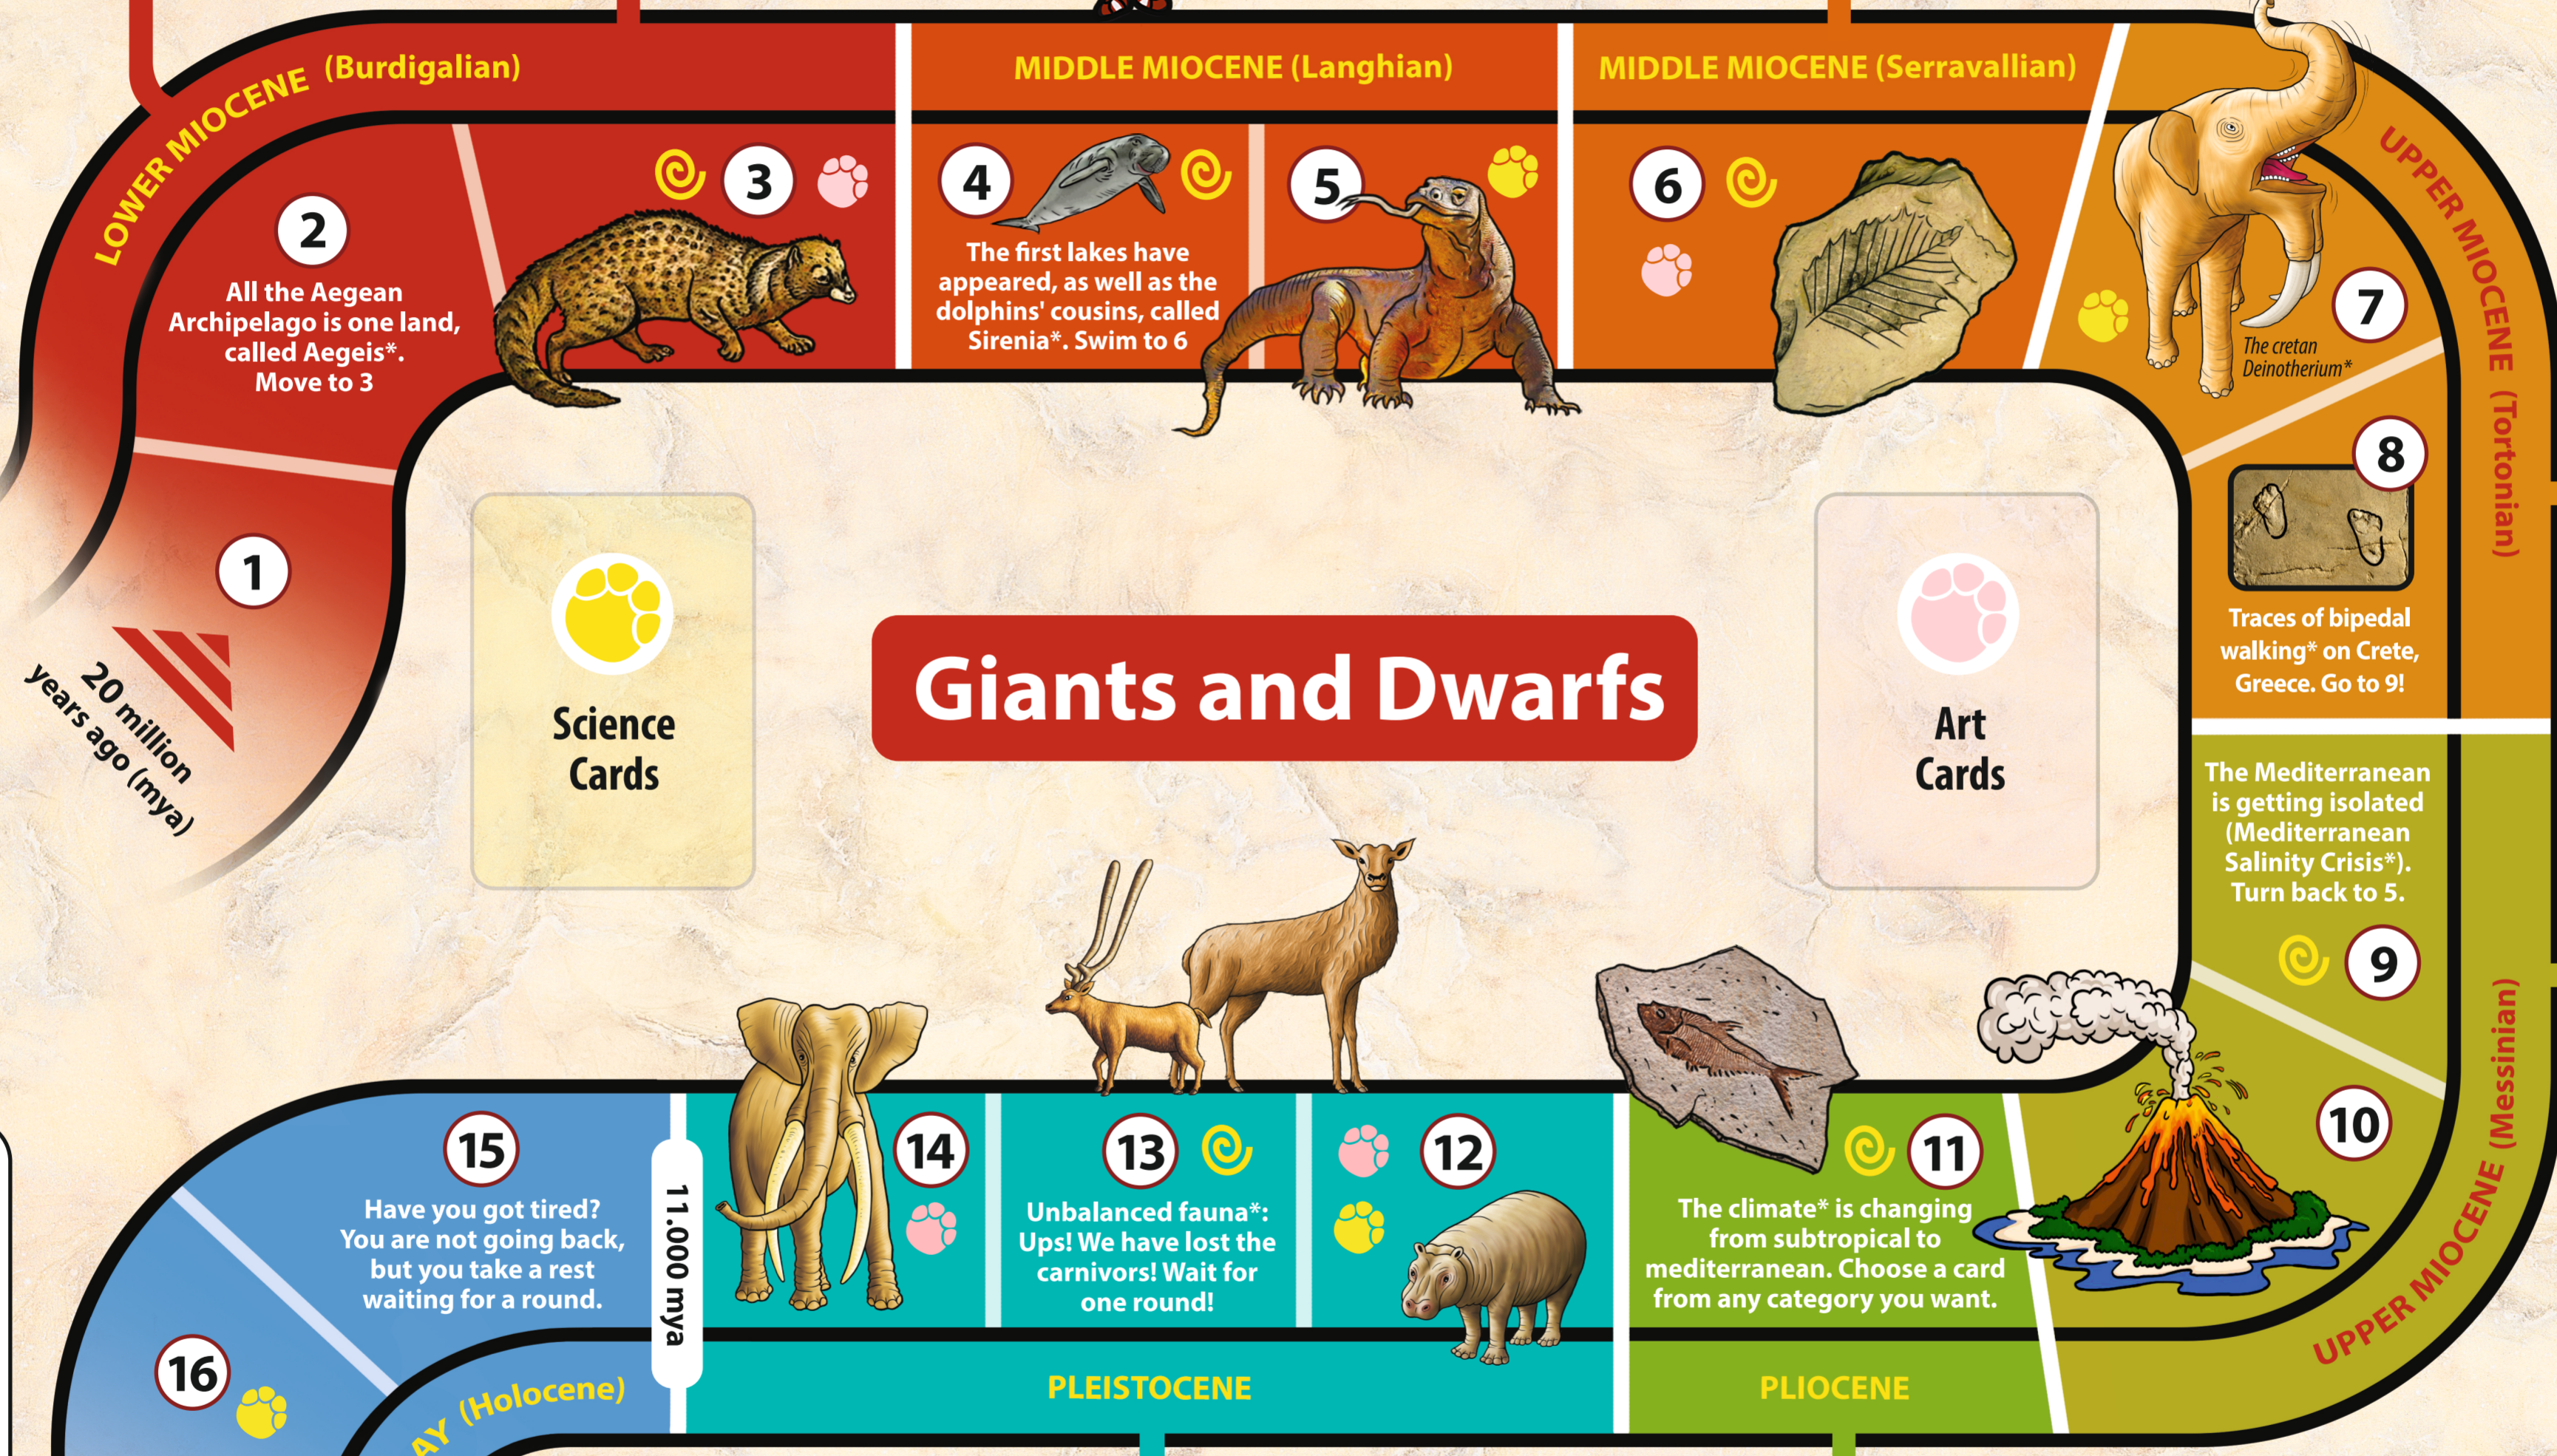

Wherever you see an asterisk *, look for the word or phrase in the glossary

Look up in the glossary for the words/phrase in red.

The game is played by 2-6 players or player groups.

You will need one dice and game pieces.

The player or player group who answers an Art Card plays first!

1 20 million years ago (mya)

2 All the Aegean Archipelago is one land, called Aegeis*. Move to 3

3 [Yellow footprint icon] [Pink footprint icon]

4 [Spiral icon] [Yellow footprint icon]

5 [Yellow footprint icon]

The first lakes have appeared, as well as the dolphins' cousins, called Sirenia*. Swim to 6

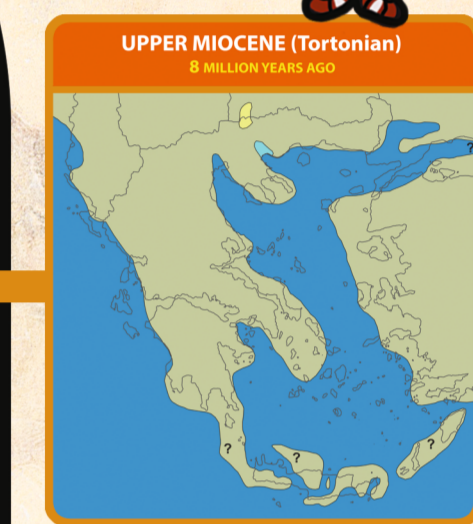

6 [Spiral icon] [Pink footprint icon]

7 [Yellow footprint icon]

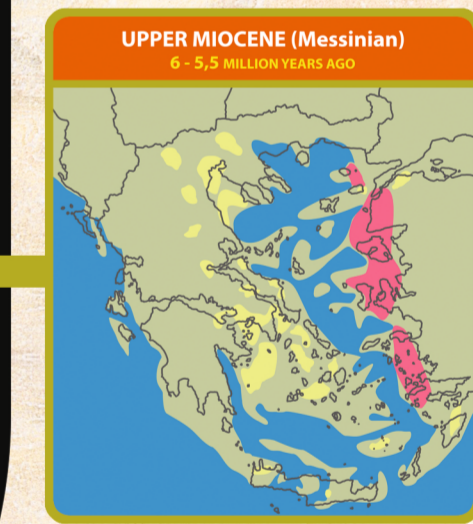

8 [Pink footprint icon]

The cretan Deinotherium*

Traces of bipedal walking* on Crete, Greece. Go to 9!

7,25 million years ago

Science Cards

Giants and Dwarfs

Art Cards

With this game we will travel through time, from when the Aegean Archipelago was formed to today!

Time travelling means a journey into both geological and biological history.

We learn about plants and animals that have lived in the Aegean Archipelago since 20 million years ago, while having fun.

If there are unfamiliar words, you may look them up in the glossary.

15 [Yellow footprint icon]

Have you got tired? You are not going back, but you take a rest waiting for a round.

16 [Yellow footprint icon]

THE JOURNEY GOES ON

14 [Pink footprint icon]

11,000 mya

13 [Spiral icon]

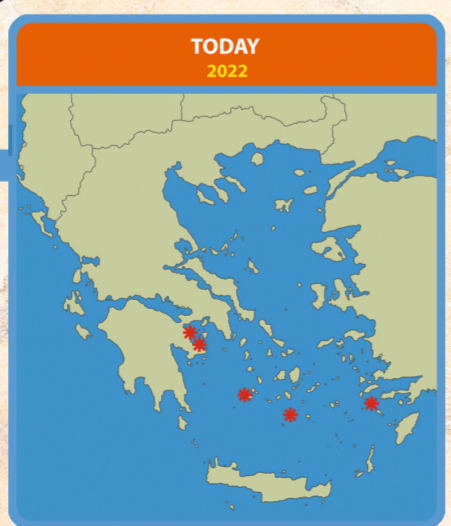

Unbalanced fauna*: Ups! We have lost the carnivores! Wait for one round!

12 [Pink footprint icon] [Yellow footprint icon]

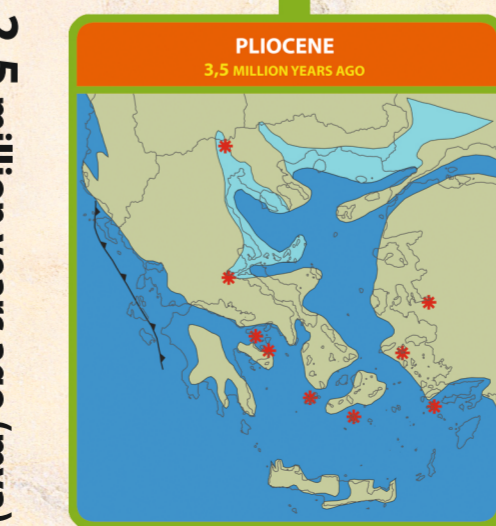

11 [Spiral icon]

The climate* is changing from subtropical to mediterranean. Choose a card from any category you want.

10 [Yellow footprint icon]

2,5 million years ago (mya)

5,3 million years ago (mya)